

The story so far

We've worked closely with local residents, businesses and planning and design experts Arup to develop the High Road West Masterplan, based on your ideas and feedback from previous consultations during the last few years.

What's happened so far?

Spring 2012

Arup was appointed to help Haringey Council develop the High Road West Masterplan

Spring – Autumn 2012

A series of consultation events were held to gain a better understanding of residents and businesses' ambitions for the area. These included a design workshop and a project with young people in the area.

April – June 2013

A six-week consultation was held on a series of options for the future of High Road West.

Feedback and ideas from the earlier consultation were used to develop three options for change, with each option building on plans for a new open space linking the High Road to a revamped White Hart Lane Station. More than 435 feedback forms were received in response from the community during this consultation.

October 2013

The High Road West consultation report was presented to Haringey Council's Cabinet.

The Cabinet approved plans to develop a comprehensive masterplan based on the community's feedback and agreed further consultation should take place with local residents and businesses.

October 2013 –
February 2014

A five-month consultation was held on Tottenham's Future.

This consultation gathered more than 3,700 responses from Tottenham residents, shaping the council's Strategic Regeneration Framework – a 20-year-plan to bring improvements.

In north Tottenham, many residents, businesses and community leaders attended Community Liaison Meetings to discuss the key issues for the future of the area.

February – July 2014

A series of consultation events were held to help shape the masterplan for High Road West.

We held design workshops and one-to-one meetings with residents and local business owners, as well as a trip to a similar regeneration scheme in Hackney.
