

A DIFFERENT KIND OF HOUSING MARKET

- High Road West Masterplan agreed by Haringey Council's Cabinet in December 2015.
- Isobel Place, a Newlon Housing Trust development, wins a London Design Award in January 2015.
- Tottenham's successful Housing Zone bid was announced by GLA in February 2015 to build approximately 2000 new homes.
- The first shared ownership homes to be built by Haringey Council were given the green light in March 2015.
- Brook House development, on the old Cannon Rubber factory site completed May 2015 by Newlon Housing Trust. 29 properties on the development allocated to Love Lane residents.
- One Housing Group development scheme underway on Chesnut Road to provide state-of-the-art supported living for older and disabled people aged 50 and over.
- Bellway's development, Lawrence Square launch a selection 1 to 4 bedroom high specification homes.

